November at Royal Learning Center

As the season of gratitude and giving approaches, we want to take a moment to thank all our wonderful families for their continued support and involvement.

Our Royal Parents Council Meeting will be held on Wednesday, November 4th, and we encourage everyone to attend as we plan and share ideas for the months ahead. Our Cultural Projects are due November 16th–20th, so please look out for additional details through Brightwheel. We will also celebrate our Thanksgiving Potluck, Royal Feast of Thanks on Tuesday, November 24th, with an early dismissal at 3:00 p.m.

As we prepare for Thanksgiving, we wish all our families a joyful holiday filled with love, rest, and gratitude. Please remember that as the weather becomes cooler, our little ones should come dressed warmly. Students should wear their uniform sweaters beneath their jackets or coats, and families are encouraged to provide appropriate cold-weather clothing and personal blankets when needed.

Finally, please remember that there will be an early dismissal at 1:00 p.m. on Wednesday, November 25th, and the center will be closed November 26th–27th for the Thanksgiving holiday.

Thank you for helping us make this November a season of kindness, learning, and togetherness!

Book of the Month

Thank You, Omu! by Oge Mora tells the story of a woman whose simmering stew draws neighbors to her door. Omu shares bowl after bowl until her pot is empty. That evening, her neighbors return with dishes of their own, and everyone sits down to dinner together.

Why Parents Should Add "Thank You, Omu!" to Their Home Library
This story helps children recognize generosity and think about how they can show gratitude. As you read together, look for the little boy who brings Omu a thank-you note. Then invite your child to draw a note for someone who has shown them kindness.
